

Cassie D. Snyder, ACP
At Large Director

Cassie D. Snyder, ACP, FRP, At Large Director of NALA, has worked as a paralegal for 27 years. She is currently employed as a liability defense paralegal with Moran Kidd Lyons Johnson Garcia, P.A. She graduated with an A.S. degree in Legal Studies from Orlando College (now Everest University). Cassie earned her Certified Paralegal credential from NALA in August 2003 and her Advanced Certified Paralegal credential in March 2013. She also holds the Florida Registered Paralegal credential through the Florida Bar.

Cassie has been a member of NALA since January 2020. She has also been a member of her local association, Central Florida Paralegal Association (CFPA), for the past 27 years. She has served on the board for CFPA for the past 17 years, serving as President for three terms and holding the offices of Vice President, Treasurer, and Director. Cassie has also chaired various committees and served as Membership Chair, CLE Chair, Elections Chair, Social Media Chair, and Co-Chair of the CP Review Course. Additionally, Cassie has been the Newsletter Editor of CFPA's "Carpe Diem" since 2006.

In her spare time, Cassie loves to volunteer and give back to charities that are near and dear to her, such as the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Our Legacy - Florida Chapter of Donate Life, the City of Altamonte Springs Recreation Department's Special Needs Program, and Give Kids the World, along with other charity work through CFPA.

Cassie resides in Ocoee, Florida, with her fiancé, Ed; her son, Brent; daughter, Kaitlin; and her grandson, Ayden. She enjoys spending time with her family, her dogs Sammy and Cooper, and her friends.
