2022 DECLARATION OF CANDIDACY

Thank you for your interest in the 2022 NALA elections. All candidates must complete the declaration of candidacy form and provide a headshot photograph to NALA by mail to 6450 S. Lewis Avenue, Suite 250, Tulsa, OK 74136; or electronically to pvanstraten@nala.org, no later than March 15, 2022 (postmarked or received). Declarations received after the deadline will not be accepted.

The information you provide on your declaration of candidacy form will be published exactly as submitted. We will not be proofing or correcting any errors. Please do not attach additional pages to the declaration of candidacy form.

Eligible Candidates

- After verification of your eligibility to run, you will receive question(s) via email that must be answered and returned to NALA. Your response will be published on the website with your candidate profile.
- All eligible candidates will be required to submit a 3-minute video explaining why they want to serve on the NALA Board. Instructions on submitting the video will be provided.
- Responses to the questions and video are due by March 31, 2022. If NALA does not receive these items by March 31, 2022, you will be removed from the slate of candidates.
- All eligible candidates will be invited to participate in a virtual Candidate Forum on June 15, 2022, at 2:00 p.m. Central Time. Each candidate will be provided the opportunity to make a brief 1-2-minute presentation and then field questions from the forum participants. The Forum will be recorded.
- All eligible candidates will be invited to participate in an in-person Candidate Forum the evening of July 13, 2022, at the NALA Conference & Expo in Phoenix, Arizona. Each candidate will be provided the opportunity to make a brief 2-3-minute presentation and then field questions from the forum participants. This Forum will be streamed live. Conference attendance is encouraged but not required. Please note that if you are elected, your first board meeting will occur during conference.

Election of Directors

In 2022, three area directors will be elected, one each from the following areas:

- AREA 1: Alabama, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, North Carolina, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington DC, West Virginia. Also included in this area are: Brazil, England, Ontario,

These officers are elected for one-year terms and may serve a maximum of two consecutive terms.

The President of NALA is elected for a one-year term by the Board of Directors from among its members during the Board's Spring meeting. The President-elect takes office in July with the other new officers and Board members.

Voting Process

Members who are classified as an Active type membership for at least 45 days prior to the Annual Meeting will vote electronically.

Voting will take place online from the convenience of your office, home, cell phone until 9:30am CT on July 14, 2022. Voting information and validation will be sent to the primary email on NALA's system. If unable to vote during the 3-week voting window, a proxy form can be submitted to ensure the vote is received. More information about proxy voting is available on the NALA website at www.nala.org.

The election results will be announced at the Annual Membership Meeting on July 14, 2022, at the NALA Conference & Expo in Phoenix, Arizona.

Documents to Review

Prior to submitting your declaration of candidacy, please review the following documents:

- NALA Bylaws (obtain copy at www.nala.org, About NALA)
- NALA Board of Directors Expectations (included)
- Agreement Relating to Proprietary and Confidential Information (included)
- NALA Expense Reimbursement Procedures (included)
- Campaign Guidelines (included)

NALA does not provide reimbursement of expenses to attend Conference for those running for office.

Please contact pvanstraten@nala.org with any questions you may have regarding the election procedures.

The NALA Board of Directors (the Board) recognizes the importance of exceptional board leadership and believes that a strong and effective board is needed for continual success in reaching its mission (“Advancing paralegals through certification and professional development”). Our board members are active advocates and ambassadors for the organization and for the paralegal profession.

On behalf of the Board, the Nomination Committee extends an invitation to qualified members to get involved in your GREAT association. Serving on the Board is a rewarding, gratifying, and an enjoyable way to be engaged in your association.

Your completed Declaration Form must be submitted by the March 15, 2022, deadline.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to a member of the Nomination Committee to discuss details of board service.

NALA BOARD OF DIRECTORS EXPECTATIONS

The role of the Board of Directors is to make policy, set direction, make decisions, hire and fire the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”), and commit the National Association of Legal Assistants, Inc. (“NALA”) financially and programmatically.

Every member of the NALA Board of Directors must be legally competent to enter into contracts, a citizen of the United States, an Active type member of NALA, actively employed as a paralegal, and must maintain current CP status.

While serving as a member of the NALA Board of Directors, you will be expected to adhere to the guidelines set forth below.

Prepare: NALA Board of Directors meetings are held 4 times a year. The first regular meeting will most likely be at the same location of the annual conference. The second board meeting is in September or October at a location TBD. The third board meeting will be held in March or April at a location TBD. At each meeting, your responsibilities include, but are not limited to: preparation of a written board report, review of previous meeting minutes, and review of all reports submitted by other board members, committee chairs, and NALA’s CEO, and a thorough understanding of discussion items on the agenda.

Participate: While attending a NALA Board of Directors meeting, you are expected to participate. You should listen with an open mind to all the viewpoints of others on the topics at hand and offer your viewpoint clearly and concisely. You are expected to recognize that all decisions made are intended to align with NALA’s Mission Statement and are in the best interest of the Association and its members. Finally, the NALA Board of Directors operates under the Carver method and speaks with one voice outside the boardroom, regardless of personal opinions.

Evaluate and follow-up with assigned tasks: When assigned a task you are expected to ensure deadlines are met and the assigned task completed and presented to the board. If you cannot meet the deadline, perform the task, or do not understand the assignment, please inform the President immediately.

Fulfill responsibilities: You are required to attend ALL board meetings and act within the Board’s Policies and Procedures Guidelines. While you are serving as a representative of NALA, remember the focus is on the good of NALA and its members. You should be able to communicate and understand NALA’s mission and vision. All NALA Board of Director members are expected to be advocates for NALA members and listen to NALA members’ thoughts and suggestions regarding NALA’s programs. Finally, all NALA Board of Directors members are expected to work cohesively with NALA staff.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LEGAL ASSISTANTS, INC.
POLICY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Title: Expense Reimbursement Procedures

Adopted: 3/8/98; Amended 3/2/02; 10/1/04; 3/4/06; 3/1/08, 3/7/09; 3/5/11; 4/22/11; 4/7/18; 10/13/18

NALA is grateful and appreciative for the service of its volunteers. In support of the services provided by its volunteers, NALA will reimburse reasonable expenses incurred by volunteers during NALA related business. NALA assumes and encourages volunteers to use their best judgment and be good stewards of NALA's resources when traveling and spending money in support of NALA related business. Therefore, volunteers shall adhere to the following policies:

A. Lodging

Lodging for committee and Board of Directors meetings will be reimbursed for the number of nights determined by the President and for an amount equal to the single room rate for the location selected by NALA. If an individual is traveling on behalf of NALA for an event other than Annual Conference, committee meeting or Board of Directors meeting, NALA will reimburse for reasonable room rates incurred. For the Annual Conference, lodging for Board Members and Nominations Chair shall be reimbursed for the number of nights determined by the President in the amount equal to the single room rate for the location selected by the President. Lodging for the Affiliated Associations Secretary at the Annual Conference shall be reimbursed for two (2) nights in an amount equal to the single room rate for the same location.

B. Transportation:

1. Individuals may book flight reservations upon preapproval from NALA or may seek assistance from NALA to make those reservations. Individuals shall make every attempt to book reservations as far in advance as possible to take advantage of discounted rates. Individuals shall provide a copy of their travel itinerary to NALA as soon as travel arrangements have been made.
  - a. Airfare and Related Air Travel Expenses: For an individual traveling by air on behalf of NALA, the following travel expenses shall be reimbursed:
    - i. Round trip coach airfare from the nearest airport to the meeting location (at the most reasonable rate).
    - ii. Airline Miles: Any airline miles earned by individuals traveling on behalf of NALA remain the property of said individual
    - iii. Airline fees for one piece of luggage.
    - iv. Mileage between home and airport, or cab fare or shuttle service between home and airport.
    - v. Cab fare or shuttle service between airport and hotel.
    - vi. Airport parking charges.

2. Mileage and Auto Travel Reimbursement: For an individual traveling by vehicle on behalf of NALA, the following travel expenses shall be reimbursed:
  - a. Automobile mileage between home and the meeting location at the current IRS reimbursement rate for business travel.
  - b. Parking fees.
  - c. Toll fees.
  - d. In no event shall the mileage and auto travel reimbursement exceed the cost of the most reasonable airfare. Proof of most reasonable airfare shall be submitted with the claim.
3. Non-Reimbursed Transportation Expenses:
  - a. Unless pre-approved by the President, expenses for rental cars will not be reimbursed. In the event rental car expenses are pre-approved by the President, the following will apply:
    1. Parking fees for rental cars, and traffic and parking violations incurred while using rental cars will not be reimbursed.
    2. Any incidents, including accidents or traffic violations occurring while using a rental car must be reported to the NALA President and the NALA CEO within 24 hours of the incident. While operating a rental car for NALA business, it is strictly prohibited to (1) text while driving, (2) consume alcoholic beverages; (3) use unauthorized drugs and/or medication that may impair judgment and driving; and (4) operate the vehicle for non-NALA business use.
  - b. Luggage fees charged by the airlines for overweight or oversized luggage and for more than one piece of luggage will not be reimbursed.
  - c. Any non-essential fees charged by the airline will not be reimbursed.
- C. Meals
  1. Reimbursed Food and Drink Expenses: Food and drink expenses incurred will be reimbursed up to the maximum daily allowance for the meeting location as set forth in the current Internal Revenue Service Per Diem Reimbursement Table. For the Annual Conference, the Per Diem Reimbursement for the Affiliate Associations Secretary shall be limited to three (3) days. For all other volunteers and events, the number of days to be reimbursed will be determined by the President.
  2. Non-Reimbursed Food and Drink Expenses: Unless approved by the President, the expenses for alcoholic items will not be reimbursed.
- D. Additional Expenses: Additional expenses incurred on behalf of NALA, including but not limited to tips, postage, overnight delivery, and supplies shall be reimbursed. Extraordinary expenses and those expenses not covered by this expense reimbursement policy must be approved by the President. Internet access fees will not be reimbursed unless approved by the President.
- E. Annual Conference: All current members of the NALA Board of Directors shall receive complimentary registration for the Annual Conference.
  1. In order for Board members to receive reimbursement for other Annual Conference expenses, attendance is required at all NALA business and social events, as defined by the President in advance of the Annual Conference. A Board member's absence at any NALA business or social event shall require prior approval of the President.

F. Claim Worksheet

1. Submission: Volunteers requesting reimbursement from NALA for actual expenses incurred shall file a completed and executed NALA Expense Claim Worksheet form within thirty (30) days of incurring the expense. The form shall be submitted to NALA, via expense@nala.org. Any expense claim submitted later than thirty (30) days after the expense is incurred must be accompanied by written approval of the President.
2. Receipts: Individuals are required to submit all receipts with their expense reimbursement vouchers. Failure to submit receipts may result in a delay in the reimbursement of expenses.
  - a. Receipts are not required for cash tips to hotel personnel, taxi drivers, or shuttle drivers.
3. Treasurer: The NALA Treasurer shall verify that the submitted expense reimbursement voucher complies with NALA policy, make any required revisions, sign the form and submit it promptly to NALA for payment.

G. Employees of NALA

1. A NALA employee who is requested by the CEO or President to travel on behalf of NALA shall be reimbursed for all reasonable actual expenses.
  - A. Approval: Expense claim forms must be approved by the CEO or President.
  - B. Lodging: Lodging expenses will be reimbursed at the reasonable single room rate if appropriate receipts are submitted.
  - C. Travel Advance: NALA employees may obtain travel advances for incidental expenses at the discretion of the CEO or President.
- H. In the event of an overpayment of expenses, the overpayment shall be returned to NALA within 60 days.
- I. Violation of Expense Reimbursement Policy: In the event that an individual violates this reimbursement policy, the individual may then be removed from membership in NALA pursuant to Section 3.22 of the NALA Bylaws.
