

Debra L. Overstreet, ACP
President

Debbie Overstreet, ACP, has been in the legal field since 1980. She has worked in both the public and private sectors and is currently employed as the Management and Disposal Branch Chief with the US Army Corps of Engineers in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Prior to her employment at the Corps of Engineers, Ms. Overstreet was employed as a Legal Assistant with the US Attorney's Office in the Northern and Eastern Districts of Oklahoma.

Ms. Overstreet earned her Certified Paralegal (CP) credential from NALA in 2000 and her Advanced Certified Paralegal (ACP) credential in the specialty areas of Discovery and Real Estate Principles. Ms. Overstreet is a graduate of NALA's inaugural leadership program, LEAP. She has served as NALA's Affiliated Associations Secretary, Affiliated Associations Director, Regional Director, Professional Development Committee member, LEAP mentor, Treasurer, Secretary, and Vice President and now serves as President.

In addition to contributing articles to NALA's Facts & Findings and volunteering as a presenter at several NALA conferences, Ms. Overstreet believes in giving back to the paralegal profession. She is active in state and local NALA Affiliated Associations. Debbie has served as three-term past President, Eastern Region Director, NALA Liaison, Publications Chair, and Seminar Chair of the Oklahoma Paralegal Association, as a member of the Community Service and Nominations Committees for the Tulsa Area Paralegal Association, and on the Paralegal Program Advisory Board at Community Care College in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She resides in Porter, Oklahoma, with her husband, Gregg Overstreet. They have five children and eight grandchildren.
