RATIONALE FOR ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS OF NEW CANDIDATES

Candidates are required to pass both the Knowledge and Skills Examinations of the Certified Paralegal credential to demonstrate that their education, coursework, experience, and training have resulted in sufficient understanding of the knowledge, skills, and abilities required to provide competent evidence-based paralegal services as determined by the job analysis studies and represented on the examination content outlines.

Because there is no comparable means for assessing competence outside of the CP® Examination, the Certifying Board does not grandfather candidates and requires everyone earning a CP® credential to have successfully fulfilled all published eligibility criteria, including passing of the examination.
