

Event Title:

Paralegals' Guide to Collecting Evidence From the Cloud

Event Date and Time:

June 07, 2024 -- 12:00 PM EDT - 01:00 PM EDT

Event Agenda:

All times are shown in Eastern time.

12:00 - 1:00, Matthew T. Nagel

- I. Collecting Emails, Messaging App Data, and Other Communication Records
- II. How to Get Files and Documents From Cloud Storage and Sharing Platforms
- III. Obtaining Social Media Content and Web-Based Evidence
- IV. Using Subpoenas to Obtain Cloud-Based Evidence

Event Description:

Learn how to effectively search the virtual file cabinets! Our experienced faculty will show you techniques and tools for obtaining cloud-based evidence without compromising its integrity and admissibility. Get simple and straightforward advice for navigating the challenges of electronic evidence collection - register today!

- Discover how to access emails, messaging applications, and other communication content.
- Review real-world techniques for collecting evidence from cloud storage platforms.
- Learn how to leverage subpoenas to secure digital evidence stored in cloud services.

Who Should Attend:

This intermediate level course is designed to give paralegals the knowledge they need to effectively collect evidence from the cloud. Those who should attend include:

- Paralegals
- Legal Technicians
- Legal Assistants
- Legal Support Staff

Event Bio:

**Matthew T. Nagel** is an attorney at Growe Eisen Karlen Eilerts. He has extensive civil litigation experience, including personal injury, workers' compensation, real estate, business and intellectual property law, and handling numerous cases to a jury verdict. Mr. Nagel is licensed to practice law in Missouri and Illinois. He earned both his J.D. degree and his LL.M. degree in intellectual property law from Washington University School of Law.

